

ÆON CREDIT SERVICE

UNIX Administrator

Responsibilities:

- Responsible for UNIX-based and SUN Solaris administration, access control and application high availability planning and implementation.
- Responsible for security administration of nominated systems, ID management, program movement/version upgrade or patch, audit logs review, audit findings review, security troubleshooting, and system hardening.
- Perform systems monitoring to ensure no interruption to company business operation, trouble shooting, exception handling, performance tuning, and optimization, load testing, etc.
- To perform technical UNIX and SUN Solaris environment support, including configuration, performance tuning, and logical access security administration.
- Updates procedures and manuals as and when required.
- Report on critical systems activities and performance to System Management Head for capacity planning purpose.
- Participate and assist DR Activity with IT Security.
- Others duties as assigned by the management.

Requirements:

- Advanced Diploma, Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science/Information Technology/Computer Engineering or equivalent
- Preferable at least 3-4 years of working experience in the related field is required for this position.
- Knowledge on access control, application high availability planning, loading balancing, system monitoring, performance tuning, load testing, patches, etc.
- Knowledge of network, security framework such as authentication, authorization, etc. would be an added advantage.
- Must be able to carry out technical support and implementation work.
- Basic of knowledge in networking, operating system and security.
- Familiar with hardware software antivirus and security systems and active director.
- Strong problem solving and analytical skills.
- Self-starter, proactive and resourceful.